Why attend the 13th World Chambers Congress?

Get insight into today's most significant global issues

Access solutions to help you do business better

Networking opportunities for chamber and business leaders

Promote trade and investment opportunities

A programme designed for an individual delegate experience that gathers public, private and international interests.

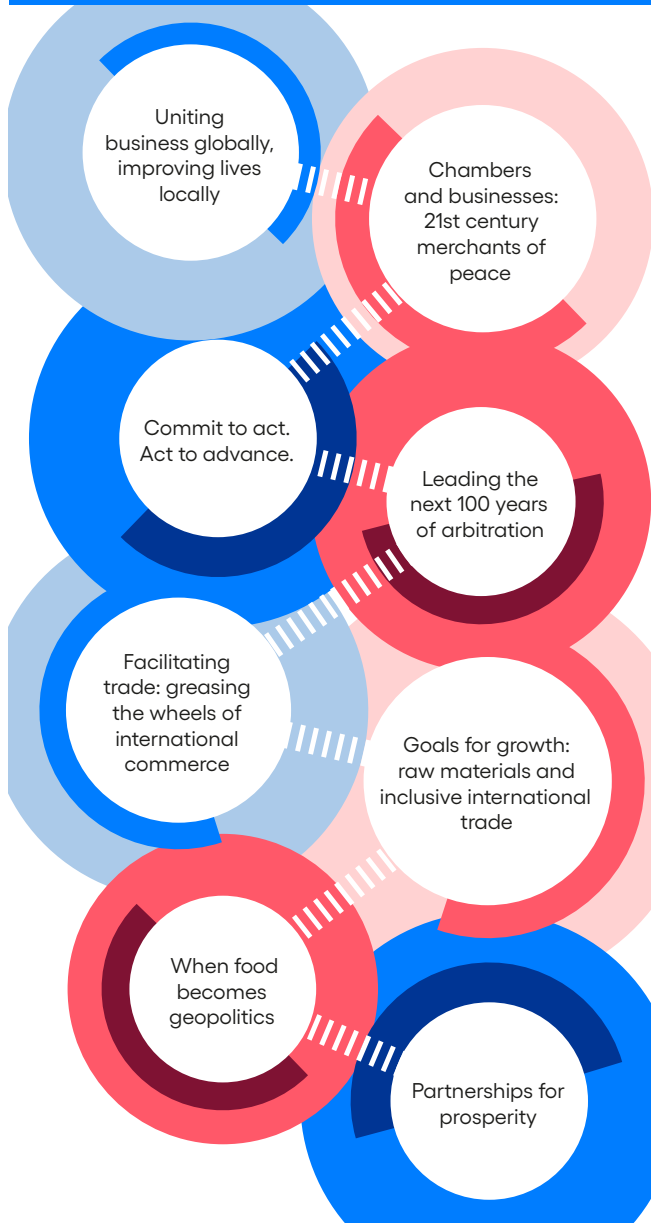

For chambers, the 13th World Chambers Congress serves as a platform for building valuable partnerships, and as a forum to learn through real life experiences essential new knowledge for assisting business and how to respond to these needs.

For international organisations, this multifaceted forum will unite the processes and know-hows of the public and private sectors, for further inclusivity in the discussion around international trade.

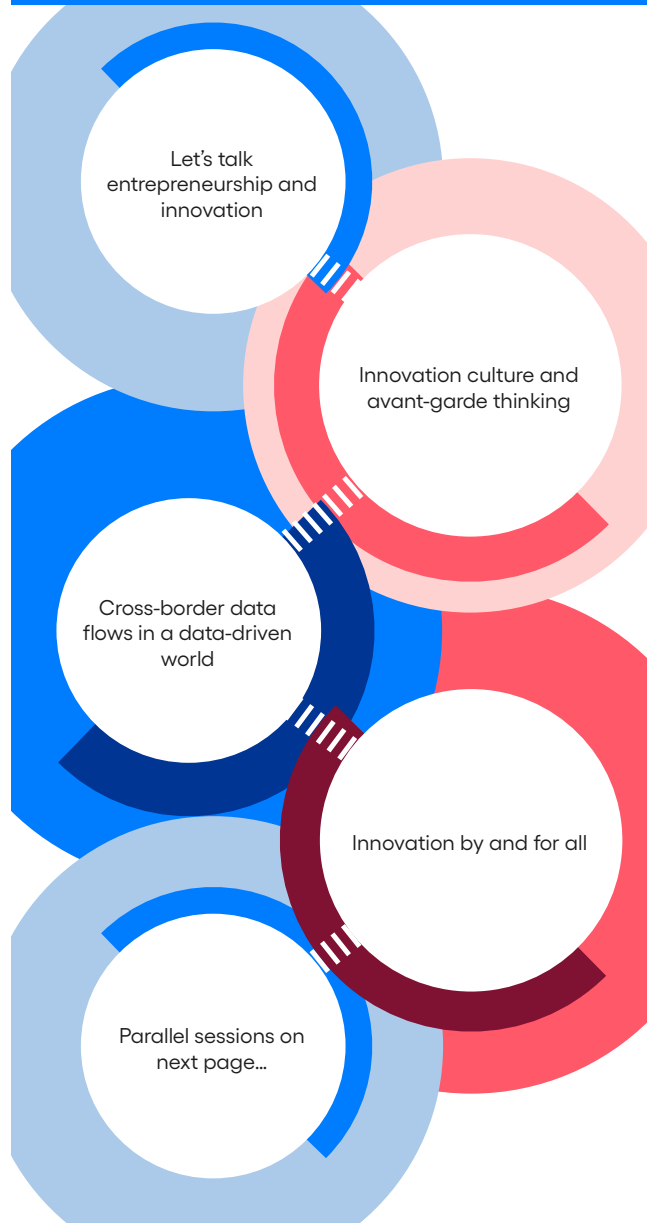

For business leaders and representatives, the Congress is the ultimate hotspot for learning the skills and tools useful for tackling the world's most pressing issues when integrating global supply chains.

By the end of our forum, delegates will have acquired useful tools to develop and strengthen skills, processes, and abilities in their respective organisations, making business simpler for everyone, everywhere.
