موعد العرض في افتتاح أعمال الملتقى المصري - الليبي: إزالة العوائق لدعم التجارة البينية

افتتح مجتمع الحبرة المواطن أحمد راشد، Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce in Giza, MP Adel Nasser, 부대_current_chairman of the Board of Directors of the Benghazi Chamber of Commerce, Industry, Agriculture Saleh Al-Obaidi, inaugurated the Egyptian-Libyan Business Forum, under the title: "Egypt and Libya towards integrated and sustainable development", which aims to enhance trade cooperation and economic integration between Egypt and Libya.

Mohamed Al-Raed stressed, "Activating the joint Egyptian-Libyan Chamber of Commerce is a step to enhance trade cooperation and economic integration between Egypt and Libya." Pointing to "the importance of facilitating the movement of individuals, capital, goods, and services and working to remove obstacles to support inter-trade between the two countries to increase trade exchange as before and even increase its rate due to the existing agreement between the chambers of commerce and businessmen of the two countries." He stressed, "Egypt and Libya are working to activate the joint trade agreement signed in 1990, as well as the agreement that was signed on its sidelines on transport and the territories that revolve around the economics and the countries in the region and the borders, and beyond that on the basis of cooperation to implement the provisions of the agreement in the two countries in a way that takes into account the needs of each country and the interest of both sides and the interest of the regional and international community."

He also stressed that "Egypt and Libya are working to remove the obstacles and the impediments and the barriers and the problems that hinder the development of trade between the two countries, and to facilitate the movement of goods and services and to support the cooperation and coordination between the two countries to achieve the desired results that we are aiming for in the economic and trade cooperation between the two countries."

He also expressed his hope that "the Egyptian-Libyan Business Forum will play an important role in promoting trade and investment between the two countries and in creating a conducive environment for the development and growth of the economy in both countries."

He stressed that "the forum will provide a platform for dialogue and cooperation between the two countries and for discussing the most important issues and challenges facing the two countries in the field of trade and investment, and for identifying the most important measures and solutions to overcome the obstacles and difficulties facing the trade and investment cooperation between the two countries."

The Governor of Giza, Major General Ahmed Rashid,
Vice President of the General Union and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce in Giza, MP Adel Nasser, President of the Federation of Chambers of Commerce, Industry, and Agriculture in Libya, Mohamed Al-Raed, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Benghazi Chamber of Commerce, Industry, Agriculture Saleh Al-Obaidi, inaugurated the Egyptian-Libyan Business Forum, under the title: "Egypt and Libya towards integrated and sustainable development", which aims to enhance trade cooperation and economic integration between Egypt and Libya.
The UAE ranked first regionally and 11th globally in the list of the most modern countries in the world for 2023, issued by CEO World magazine. The UAE has overtaken Singapore, Sweden, the Netherlands, Malaysia, Portugal, and Austria. The ranking is based on a survey of more than 126,000 people worldwide and looks at three key factors in assessing 50 countries: the fashion scene, art, design and culture, and market competitiveness. The ranking also monitored the reputation of countries on media and social media platforms such as Twitter and Instagram.

France topped the general ranking of the most modern countries in the world, followed by Italy in second place, Canada in third, Spain in fourth, and the United Kingdom in fifth place.

Source (Al Khaleej Newspaper, UAE, Edited)