Abdo Idris was elected President of the Federation of Palestinian Chambers of Commerce, Industry, and Agriculture, while Aideh Abu Ramadan was elected Vice President, Omar Abu Bakr was elected Treasurer and Dr. Samir Hazboun was elected Secretary.

The elections for the distribution of the positions of the Board of Directors of the Union were held at the headquarters of the Ministry of Economy under the supervision of Minister of Economy Khaled Al-Osaily, and in the presence of the former President of the Federation of Chambers of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture, Omar Hashem, and the Director General of the Private Sector Unit, Ihab Hajj Yassin.

The Federation Council expressed its thanks and appreciation to the Ministry of National Economy, which exerted all its efforts to complete the electoral process in its various stages despite the difficulties and challenges, stressing the work to develop plans that would respond to the requirements of the development of the national economy.

The former President of the Federation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry Omar Hashem expressed his thanks and great appreciation to the Palestinian government and the Minister of National Economy for conducting the electoral process, which took place with professionalism and transparency, praising the staff of the Ministry of Economy and the General Federation in the Chambers of Commerce and Industry and the judiciary in accomplishing this task, which will reflect positively on the performance of the Chambers of Commerce and the national economy.

The Elected President of the General Federation of Chambers of Commerce, Abdo Idris, stressed "moving forward in achieving our goals and vision towards developing and improving the performance of the Chambers of Commerce and Industry, fulfilling the commitments we made to the members of the Chambers of Commerce and Industry and completing the development process."

Idris is the President of the Hebron Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the second consecutive time he has won the presidency of the Council, and this is the first time that the President of the Hebron Chamber has won the presidency of the Federation since its establishment in 1989. Abu Ramadan is the head of the Gaza Chamber, Abu Bakr is the head of the Jenin Chamber, and Dr. Hazboun is the head of the Bethlehem Chamber.

The Federation of Palestinian Chambers enjoys, in accordance with the law, a legal personality that is financially and administratively independent, and is the national umbrella of the Palestinian Chambers of Commerce and Industry, and represents the chambers and their affiliated members before official and non-official bodies locally and internationally. The Union also works to take care of the interests of its members, defend their rights, participate in the drafting, review and amendment of laws, regulations and procedures of an economic nature, which are related to facilitating the work of the Palestinian private sector, providing an enabling environment for investment, ensuring the performance of the private sector in a competitive environment based on best commercial norms and practices, in addition to raising the efficiency and capabilities of chambers of commerce and industry, developing and diversifying their services.

Tatyana Gvelava wins "Wise Leader Award" at the Global Women Entrepreneurs Summit

The World Women Entrepreneurs Summit (WWES) took place in Abu Dhabi (UAE) from 10-11 March 2023, under the patronage of Her Highness Sheikha Fatima bint Mubarak Al Ketbi, "Mother of the Nation". The summit was attended by 400 delegates from 38 countries including representatives of women's business communities from Russia, Egypt, Ghana, India, Brazil, Bahrain, Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, and Azerbaijan. The summit was also attended by a number of distinguished guests in person, including His Excellency Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Tolerance of the United Arab Emirates, Minister of State for Foreign Trade Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, representatives of Her Highness Sheikha Fatima Al Ketbi, and Minister of State in the UAE Government, His Excellency Dr. Sheikha Maitha bint Salem Al Shamsi, and President of the Federation of UAE Chambers of Commerce and Industry Abdullah Al Mazrouei.

The Russian-Arab Business Council and the All-Russian General Organization "Businesswomen" organized the participation of the Russian delegation in the summit, which consisted of 66 leaders of the business community from 13 regions of the Russian Federation.

On the sidelines of the summit, the work of the Global Association for the Development of Entrepreneurship was held by the Businesswomen Council (WBC), which was established by the Arab-Russian Business Council and the Union of Arab Chambers in cooperation with the Emirates Businesswomen Council (EWBC).

Delegates from Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, and Azerbaijan also signed their countries to join the WBC. The Russian side also presented a joint initiative between the Arab-Russian Business Council and the Union of Arab Chambers, which is a multifunctional information technology platform, which is supposed to serve as a tool for strengthening Russian-Arab trade and economic relations.

The awards ceremony was also organized to encourage and honor the most active and prominent leaders of the international women's communities, where His Excellency Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Tolerance of the United Arab Emirates, personally handed Tatyana Gvelava the "Wise Leader Award", emphasizing her outstanding leadership qualities and her significant contribution to WWES and the promotion of Russian-Emirati dialogue.

المجلس النيابي المصري يقر اعتمادًا إضافيًا للموازنة بـ 5.3 مليار دولار

أقر مجلس النواب المصري، في جلسته العامة، مشروع قانون مقدم من الحكومة بفتح اعتمادًا إضافيًا للموازنة العامة للدولة للسنة المالية 2022-2023 بقيمة 165 مليار جنيه (حوالي 5.3 مليار دولار)، وذلك لتفعيل المحاولة في العديد من بنود الموازنة، ومنها الأجور وشراء السلع والخدمات.

وتضمن المادة 124 من الدستور المصري أن تشمل الموازنة العامة للدولة كافة الإيرادات والمصروفات دون استثناء، ويعرض مشروعها على مجلس النواب قبل تسعين يومًا على الأقل من بدء السنة المالية، ولا تكون نافذة إلا بموافقة مجلس القمة (البرلمان) على نقل أي مبلغ من باب إلى آخر من أبواب الموازنة، وعلى كل مصروف غير وارد بها، أو زائد على تقريرها، وتصدر الموافقة بقانون.

In its plenary session, the Egyptian House of Representatives approved a draft law submitted by the government to open an additional appropriation in the state’s general budget for the fiscal year 2022-2023 worth 165 billion pounds (about 5.3 billion dollars), in order to cover the deficit in many budget items, including wages and the purchase of goods and services.

The Chairman of the Planning and Budget Committee in the Council, MP Fakhry El-Feki, noted, "The opening of the additional appropriation in the budget is due to the challenges faced by the country due to global crises, foremost of which is the Russian-Ukrainian war, and the negative repercussions and effects of this war on the Egyptian economy." Considering that "The government contributed to alleviating the severity of the economic crisis on citizens, by providing a new package of social protection measures," explaining that "the additional appropriation includes the allocation of 10 billion pounds for Bab wages, 70 billion pounds for the purchase of goods, in addition to 85 billion pounds to cover debt service."

Article 124 of the Egyptian Constitution stipulates that the general budget of the State shall include all its revenues and expenditures without exception, and its draft shall be submitted to the House of Representatives at least ninety days before the beginning of the fiscal year, and shall not be effective unless approved by it. The transfer of any amount from one section of the budget to another, and any expenditure not contained therein or in excess of its estimates, must be approved by Majlis, and approval shall be issued by law.
